

PROBATION USER FEES / RESTITUTION

Administrative and Probation User Fees

Subject to IC 31-40-1-3, a juvenile court may order each delinquent child who receives supervision or the child's parent, guardian or custodian to pay:

An Initial Probation User's Fee of at least twenty-five dollars ($25) but not more than one hundred dollars ($100);

An Ongoing Probation User's Fee of at least ten dollars ($10) but not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each month the child receives supervision;

An Administrative Fee of one hundred dollars ($100) may be collected if the delinquent child is supervised by a juvenile probation officer.

The probation department shall collect the administrative fee before collecting any other fee.

Juvenile Interstate Transportation Fund

Subject to IC 11-13-4.5-4, a juvenile court may order an application fee (Juvenile Interstate Transportation Fund) of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for a child on probation who applies to be transferred out of state under the Interstate Compact for Juveniles.

Restitution

In appropriate cases the child and his parents are ordered to reimburse victims for loss or damages incurred as a result of a delinquent act. Compensating the victim for his/her loss instills positive values and moral obligation in the child and is an important part of the rehabilitative process.
